

Ada Mae Schneider

Ada Mae was born on February 20, 1923 in Owosso, MI. She grew up in Flushing where she attended Richardson School from kindergarten through 8th grade. She started at Flushing High School, but had to quit in the 9th grade to take care of her mother. She grew up on a farm, and while her father and brother took care of cows and crops she took care of the cooking, sewing, and household chores. Her grandmother and mother taught her to cook, bake, crochet and knit. One of her favorite things to do was to bareback ride her horse, Molly.

Ada Mae was married twice and has a son, Norman, living in Birch Run, and a daughter, Mary Ellen in Saginaw Twp. She is also proud of her five grandchildren. Jim, Ada Mae's second husband moved her to Miami, Florida. Some of her best memories are from living in Miami. She worked quite a while as a cashier for Holden's Red Stamps and enjoyed that job.

Ada is a cat person and fondly remembers a cat named Pumpkin. A true Michigander, she has fond memories of visiting Mackinac Island. Chinese food is her favorite and she especially likes the Community Village Strawberry Festival.

Attending church while growing up taught her to be a good girl and currently her daughter picks her up to go to church at Saginaw Valley Nazarene Church. Her daughter gave her the guidance she needed to choose Community Village as her home. She likes where she lives and enjoys all the people here.
