

Paralee Johnson

Paralee was born in Greenville, Alabama on February 6, 1928. She attended Green City Training School and raised 6 children, 4 boys and 2 girls. She has numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Paralee was baptized in 1937 at the age of 9 years old. Her faith is very important to her. She believes that reading scriptures daily and doing what is right is the key to living out her Christian faith. Before coming to Community Village she was a member of Shiloh and Zion Baptist churches in Saginaw. She now enjoys attending the Sunday morning services at Community Village.

Paralee has always had a strong work ethic. She was employed at the Mall and at Schuch Hotel, working at the hotel being her favorite place of employment.

Her father and mother had the greatest impact on her life. When they separated, Paralee enjoyed working at her step-father's cow farm. This and riding the school bus are among her most memorable moments.

Before coming to Community Village Paralee liked to cook, clean and grocery shop with the assistance of another person. She still enjoys cleaning and has picked up a new hobby; putting together puzzles.

Paralee enjoys the kind people at the Village as well as having meals prepared for her. The caring staff won her over and she decided Community Village was the place for her to stay. Paralee is happiest when she can read scripture every night and enjoy watching television.
